

Join us as Intern (m/f) – Social Media Marketing

We are the curators behind the largest hackathons in Germany. Just like in Rhein-Neckar and Rhein-Main (May 2019), we are connecting developers, designers, and growth hackers with leading German corporations across Germany. We want to grow the list of our already existing partners beyond Lufthansa, Fraport, BASF, SAP and many other multinationals and need your help!

WHAT WE ARE SEEKING FOR

- You are a self-motivated team player who is not afraid to roll up his/her sleeves
- You are enrolled in a university study program (Science, Design, Business, Humanities)
- You share our genuine interest in digital products and business models
- You are extremely well organized, diligent and willing to learn quickly
- You are creative and detail-oriented
- You work independently and are willing to take over a large amount of responsibility
- You have already gathered first-hand experience in the field of social media or online marketing
- You have a very strong command of Microsoft Office – additional software knowledge is a great plus, especially Photoshop
- You have excellent verbal and written communication skills in German and English

WHAT YOU WILL BE WORKING ON

- Support the management and marketing team in day-to-day business, in particular but not limited to the areas of social media
- Create web content for social media in German and English
- Participate in the planning, organization and execution of social media projects
- Support the communication with exciting international stakeholders and clients
- Work closely with the founder and gain a 360°-view on founding a company (legal, accounting, tax, finance, marketing, sales, etc.)

WHAT WE OFFER

- Insights into online and social media marketing and into a number of fast-growing digital start-ups
- Flexible working hours and home office options (if project allows)
- A flat hierarchy in a dynamic, energetic and highly experienced young team
- Entrepreneurial drive and an inspiring working atmosphere that encourages learning and growth
- Plenty of space to develop your own ideas
- Fair payment
- The best coffee in the start-up environment in Mannheim and joint trips to the Rhein-Neckar Löwen handball games (sponsored by our partner)
